OUR MISSION:

To facilitate connections between the various cultures within Western Australia so that we can have meaningful conversations based on mutual trust, understanding, and appreciation of the richness in all cultures.

OUR OBJECTIVES:

To be a vehicle to promote and enhance co-existence and social cohesion of the diverse cultures in our community; using radio and allied tools.

To facilitate connections between the various cultures in Western Australia so that we can have meaningful conversations based on mutual trust and understanding.

To leverage links with government departments, corporate and private organisations to seek sponsorship and support to accomplish the above objectives.
